Conference Speakers

Dr John Hewson

is a very experienced economist, financial expert & company director. He is a former Leader of the Liberal Party & a supporter of climate action

Dr Dean Bialek

Dean is a leading international lawyer, diplomat & expert on energy, climate change and sustainable development. He currently works on the Mission 2000 climate project.

Kate Raffin

Kate's workshops are fun, inspiring and open up rich new avenues for authentic communication. She is a highly experience trainer and Fellow of the Australian Resolution Institute.

Sally Whyte

Sally Whyte is an experienced reporter for The Canberra Times. She an expert on federal politics.

Rod Mitchell

Rod is the CCL Chair, a founding member of CCL Australia and has extensive lobbying experience. He has a background in community development, training & counselling.

Marion Niederkofler

Marion is the Senior Policy Officer for Australian Industry Greenhouse Network (AIGN) promoting Industry Engagement on Climate Policy.

CCL's Lobbying Approach is to create positive relationships with politicians & their staff: We show respect and appreciation and work to find shared values. We are for, not against things. We listen to what they say and ask for what we want. We lobby in teams which makes it very easy for first-timers.
